

EXHIBIT 90

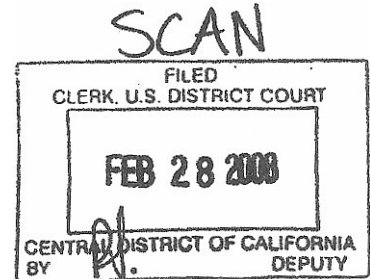

Feb. 27, 2008 U.S. marshals Manny Gomez and Danny Whitman came with Simi Valley detective Paul Coombs to Defendant's home "to see if he presented a threat to judge Manuel Real". When asked on what grounds, Gomez said "this is already a matter of public record" and held out a Document Defendant sent to the Court on Feb. 21 demanding the arrest of Real for Criminal Conspiracy, see photo right. On March 6 notification was sent that the Document was filed Feb. 28, see below, a day after Gomez lied "this is already a matter of public record". Plaintiff's attorneys Navid Soleymani and Nicole Tellem received the Document electronically several days before the Office of the Clerk, which gave them time to notify the client to have the Document intercepted by U.S. Marshals Services. Since judge Real did not respond to any of Defendant's Motions, Requests or Demands, while promptly responding to all of Plaintiff's, it is safe to assume that all of Defendant's Documents were intercepted.
